

I'm paying for this service - If the service was free, I could possibly see and issue, but I think that the radio stations need to shutup and learn to compete.